Summary of Results

The net asset value of the Brandes International Small Cap Equity Fund (Class A Shares without load) advanced 30.46% in the trailing twelve months ended March 31, 2026, outperforming the 27.82% return of the MSCI ACWI ex-USA Small Cap Index, as well as outperforming the 28.53% return of the MSCI ACWI ex-USA Small Cap Value Index. Notable contributors included holdings in consumer discretionary, communication services, industrials, and health care were standout performers, whereas allocations to information technology and consumer staples detracted from relative returns, along with a lack of exposure to metals & mining. Geographically, the Fund benefited from holdings in France and emerging markets.

TOP PERFORMANCE CONTRIBUTORS

Consumer Discretionary | Hankook Tire & Technology (South Korea), Burberry Group (U.K.), Emperor Watch & Jewelry (Hong Kong).

Communication Services | Millicom International Cellular (Sweden) and Magyar Telekom (Hungary).

Industrials | Kennametal (U.S.), LISI (France), and Montana Aerospace (Switzerland). Kennametal significantly raised its guidance for fiscal year 2026 and is expected to be a key beneficiary of the material increase in tungsten prices, providing a potential positive tailwind to its margins.

TOP PERFORMANCE DETRACTORS

Information Technology | Open Text (Canada), Globant (U.S.), and underweight to Semiconductors & Semiconductor Equipment. Both Open Text and Globant were pressured by heightened concerns around perceived AI disruption in the IT services and software industries.

Consumer Staples | C&C Group (Ireland) and PT Indofood (Indonesia).

Lack of Exposure to Metals & Mining | Metals & mining was one of the best performing industries in the benchmark.
